

From the Pastor's Desk.....

Blessed be the Lord,
Because He has heard the voice of my supplications!
The Lord is my strength and my shield;
My heart trusted in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
And with my song I will praise Him.
Psalm 28:6-7 NKJV

Hello family,

Do you ever just stop and think about how much the Lord has blessed you?

I'm not talking about material things, although He blesses us in that area also. I mean things like those times when we know that He has kept us safe from harm physically and spiritually.

How about those times of being at that point of frustration, despair, or discouragement when we cried out to Him from the deepest part of our selves, and He met us right where we were and comforted and encouraged us?

How about when we felt alone and afraid and we quietly prayed that to Him, and He made sure we remembered a verse or a few verses from His word, that reminded us Who He is and how very much He loves us?

How about those times when so much is going on in our lives that we don't even know what to say to Him so we just tell Him that we need His help, and His peace and His comfort surrounds us and settles on us?

How about those times when we stop and really ponder, think deeply on His great love for us and how He is always there for us that just motivates us to rejoice in Him?
You know, when we just have that private time of praise and worship of Him, celebrating His Awesomeness. So happy that we can and should always completely trust Him in and with everything.

Let's make sure that no matter what is going on in our lives that we stay steady in our love and appreciation for Him.
Let's make sure to remember His great love for us and as we do so, let's make sure to humbly thank Him.

He is so worthy of our praise and thanksgiving!

In Christ's love,
Pastor Dave Wolff
